

OSKA

In mid-2020, OSKA hit the jackpot. The Austrian artist signed her first record deal with the Canadian label Nettwerk, shortly after winning the XA Music Export Award at the Waves Vienna Festival 2020. In January 2021, she released her debut EP „Honeymoon Phase“, which charted multiple songs in Austrian Airplay Charts and earned her first Amadeus Austrian Music Award in 2022 in the category „Best Sound“ (out of a total of 5 nominations). With plays on the cultural broadcaster Ö1, the mainstream radio Ö3 and the alternative music radio FM4, she achieved a balancing act in Austria that only a few artists manage. In addition to all the major releases in her home country, OSKA was also able to convince the international press in Germany, Netherlands, France, Italy and even the USA.

Her debut album „My World, My Love, Paris“ received international recognition and led to a busy schedule with over 100 concerts across Europe in 2022. Apart from her solo tour, the charming singer-songwriter conquered the hearts of Europe as the opening act for artists such as Milow, Stu Larsen, HAEVN or Matt Simons. In 2022 she also went on a Europe tour with Brit Award winner Tom Odell, who personally invited her after discovering her at the Reeperbahn Festival in September 2021, where she performed as part of her Anchor Award nomination, with Odell on the jury.

The year 2023 started with a significant award for the singer-songwriter. Not only did she perform at the Eurosonic Showcase Festival in Groningen, she also won a coveted Music Moves Europe Award, following in the footsteps of previous winners such as Rosalía, Dua Lipa, Stromae, Hozier, Adele, Mumford & Sons, or Christine and the Queens. In April 2023 she accompanied American singer-songwriter SYML on his Europe, UK and Ireland tour.

In spring 2024 the time has come: we can not only look forward to new music from the aspiring singer-songwriter, but also watch her conquer the USA. With appearances at three showcase festivals in March – the renowned SXSW in Austin, Texas, The New Colossus in New York City, and the New New Festival in Dallas – she will celebrate her live debut on American soil.

In August 2024, OSKA will open all 4 sold-out shows by British superstars Coldplay in Vienna's Ernst Happel Stadium. Performing in front of approximately 50.000 fans each evening, totaling 200.000 people, will mark the highlight of her career so far. The joy and honor are immense, as Chris Martin & Co. personally select the support acts for their tour.
